food, drinks, and prize draws without overrunning the venue's time slot.

Round Objective: In each round, the target number (1-6) is announced. Players aim to roll that number as often as possible. Scoring Triggers: A roll of the target number scores one point. Rolling three of the target number in a single throw called a "Bunco" earns a 21-point bonus. Table Rotation: After a round ends, the host calls "silence," and participants move to the next table, ensuring fresh pairings and continuous engagement. For newcomers, the biggest pain point is remembering which number is "on" for a round. A quick visual cue such as a brightly colored card placed on the table eliminates this confusion, reducing delays and keeping the game's tempo brisk. Would you love to play party games, but don't have a big enough gaming group to do so?
